President's Report

Ciao (hello) to all our club members.

As you all know the Bathurst Nationals was held between the 18th and the 21st May. The Falcon GT Club of SA would like to congratulate the following members on winning in the following categories:

Michael Stavrides – XT GT original unrestored winner

Tony Jordan – XR GT original modified winner

Russell Sikorski – XY GT original restored gold certificate

Peter Polson – XW GT

We also would like to extend our thanks to Dave Di Rado and his team members for the spectacular display for the 19th Falcon GT Nationals held in Bathurst where some 420 cars were on show. Peter Polson will have a further update at the next meeting.

The Palmer Hotel cruise was postponed due to some members being sick. Bryan and Karen will update on rescheduling the cruise.

Don't forget 11th June run to Riverton. Meet at OTR Bolivar leaving 11.00am.

The 30th June is fast approaching for logbook stamping and membership renewals.

If you are unable to get to a club meeting you can contact our Northern officer, Karl Brown, or our Southern officer, Jaime McNeil, for your logbook stamp/membership renewals. Please pay online, bring a copy of your receipt and membership forms, all relevant papers, registration etc. Please be mindful to call and book a time that fits in with them as both officers work and run a business. Work in with them as to their availability.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

You need to have your car's logbook stamped on renewal of your membership by the Club's official registration delegate or your car will be classed as unregistered.

All clubs are obliged by law to pass on details of unstamped logbooks of unfinancial members to the relevant authorities. If you are caught driving an unregistered vehicle it will be impounded. You may have registered your vehicle for 2-3 years. Unless your logbook is stamped for the current financial year your vehicle is unregistered.

Arrivederci (goodbye).

Joe Pinneri

Vice President

Falcon GT Club of SA Inc

Greetings all,

The GT Nationals, after an extended hiatus, has recently concluded and based on 'FB', appears to have been a successful event, with a candy shop of GT Falcons of all flavours on display.

Congratulations must be extended to:

- Anthony Graham Jordan and his XR GT winning the Modified category
- Michael Stavrides and his XT GT winning Original Unrestored.

There certainly appeared to be some interesting and notable (significant) Ford's displayed, with the unicorn, XA GT-HO exposed behind a cage and the NSW Police, Highway Patrol DJR GT-F casting a 'constabulary' shadow over everything there, perhaps on guard?

To all Club members that made the effort to drive to Bathurst and represent our Club, Thank you. I look forward to the event, to be held in Victoria in two years time....

Cheers

Ed.
