Greetings Fellow Clubbies,

I'm happy to announce that the updated Constitution has been voted on and subsequently passed to be the Club's new constitution. Once the few missing comers and full stops, etc have been added, it will be uploaded to the Club's website for all to read.

A big thankyou to Leanne, Michael, Peter, Joe and Tony and anyone else I may have missed for helping to get the job done.

If you didn't attend the Mildura weekend away then you missed a great event. Paddle boat tour, BBQ's, leisure and laughter. A big thankyou to Karen and Bryan for another successful event.

The November club run is an observation run on the 9th November. Meet at the Burnside Town Hall 10am for a 10.30am with each car released at 5 minute intervals. BBQ facilities with steaks supplied by the club. Byo everything else or have your own picnic etc.

Please RSVP Leanne 0400456317 or Karl 0408351391 to register your attendance.

That's it from me,
See you all at Burnside,
Regards Karl 0408351391

EVENTS

Mildura weekend away was a great success with 30 people coming along for an awesome weekend. Lots of fun and laughter was had. We stayed at The Buronga Caravan park, booking 14 cabins and one caravan site.

Friday lunch we took over the New Land bakery in Waikarie, if you ever go to the Riverland call in enjoy the food.

Friday night we took over the camp kitchen and had Pasta night

Saturday was a paddle steamer cruise on The Rothbury for a 2 hour trip.

Nighttime we all got together and had a BBQ and celebrated Hugh and Micks birthdays, Drinks followed and flowed well into the night, where more laughter was had.

Sunday Bacon and Egg breakfast. Thankfully we had the camp kitchen the whole weekend to be able to seat us all together. Members enjoyed the rest of the day doing their own thing, whether it was going to Wentworth where the rivers meet, the Holden museum, a winery , or just having a look around town and getting a bit of shopping done.

Sunday afternoon saw Bryan, Gabby and I chatting in our cabin to the next minute being full blown 20 ppl having more drinks and snacks.

Unfortunately, Karl, Leanne had to go home, and Gary and Rosie left because listening to a smoke alarm going off at 6am 2 days in a row was enough. The only bad thing I can fault of the caravan park in not accommodating them for a move to a new cabin.

Monday saw us all pack up and drive home, leaving the sunshine of 34 degrees only to drive through fog and rain, weird.
